

Kitchen Kettle Village 25th Annual Rhubarb Festival

Friday, May 16th — 9am-5:30pm

Saturday, May 17th — 9am-6pm

Lancaster County's harbinger of spring—celebrating the infamous rhubarb. See and taste all that is rhubarb!

Friday, May 16th, 2008 - 9:00am-5:30pm

- 11am-1pm - Schlossman German Band performing at the stage area
- 11am-4pm - Banjo Jimmy & his Sideman performing ragtime folk music
- 1:30pm - Rhubarb Whoopie Pie Filling Contest at the stage area—participants needed
- 2pm - “Whet your Appetite for Rhubarb” Cooking Demonstration with Kristine Grego at the stage area
- 2-4pm - Flower planting demonstration by Tin-N-Treasures featuring the new Pamela Crawford side planting black iron flower baskets
- 2:30-4:30pm - Bone Tom Jazz Band performing at the stage area
- 4:30pm - Cooking with Kitchen Kettle Rhubarb Products Demonstration by Kitchen Kettle’s “Food Guy” Tom Rothfus at the stage area
- All Day - Meet “Rhu-Barb”, our rhubarb expert for helpful rhubarb hints
- All Day - Rhubarb food sampling tables & fresh rhubarb for sale
- All Day - Children’s Rhubarb Arcade Games & Carfts
- All Day - Rhubarb jams being made in our Jam & Relish Kitchen

Saturday, May 17th, 2008 - 9:00am-6:00pm

- 10am-4pm —Rhubarb Race Car Derby to benefit Lancaster Farmland Trust - races held at 10am, Noon, 2:30pm & 4pm
- 10:30pm - “Best Rhubarb Dessert in Lancaster County Baking Contest” featuring celebrity judges. Dessert slices will be sold following the competition. All proceeds benefit the Lancaster Farmland Trust.
- 11am-4pm - Banjo Jimmy & his Sideman performing ragtime folk music
- 12:30pm - Crowning of the official Rhubarb King & Queen at the stage area
- 12:30-2pm - The Dixieland Band performing ragtime favorites at the stage
- 2pm - Rollicking Rhubarb Stroll (mini parade) featuring musicians, costumed characters, Kitchen Kettle’s own pink ladies and the Rhubarb King & Queen & more.
- 2-4pm - Flower planting demonstration by Tin-N-Treasures featuring the new Pamela Crawford side planting black iron flower baskets
- 2:30-5:30pm - Enjoy the sounds of the Roadsters (a 50’s band) performing at the stage area
- All Day - Meet “Rhu-Barb”, our rhubarb expert for helpful rhubarb hints.
- All Day - Rhubarb Food Sampling Tables & Fresh Rhubarb for sale
- All Day - Children’s Rhubarb Arcade Games & Crafts

